

Fewer Eggs are required with ROYAL BAKING POWDER

In many recipes the number of eggs may be reduced and often left out altogether with excellent results by using an additional quantity of Royal Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted. The following recipe is a practical example:

Chocolate Layer Cake

Chocolate Layer Cake
 1/2 cup shortening
 1 cup sugar
 1 cup milk
 1 1/2 cups flour
 4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1 egg

DIRECTIONS—Cream shortening; add sugar gradually, beaten egg, one-half the milk and mix well. Add one-half the flour which has been sifted with salt and baking powder, the rest of the milk, then the rest of the flour and add flavoring. Bake in greased layer cake tins in moderate oven 15 to 20 minutes.

The old method called for 3 eggs

CHOCOLATE FILLING AND ICING
 2 cups confectioners' sugar
 1/2 cup boiling water
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1 1/2 ounces unsweetened chocolate (1 1/2 squares)
 1/2 teaspoon grated orange peel
 To the sugar add boiling water very slowly to make a smooth paste. Add vanilla, melted chocolate and orange peel. Spread between layers and on top of cake.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO HAWAII FROM MAINLAND NEWSPAPERS

The war has affected the Hawaiian Islands by reason of its inroads on merchant ship tonnage, but otherwise the islands have hardly felt the effect of the world conflict, according to M. R. Munn, who has just returned from Honolulu. Mr. Munn is paying a visit to his brother, O. N. Munn, of this city, after spending several years in the government service at Hawaii. He says he has left the islands "for good," but does not know where he will locate.

Thousands of tons of sugar, hemp and other island staples are awaiting shipment at various points on the islands, Mr. Munn says, but there has been difficulty in obtaining bottoms for handling these commodities. Most of the exports come to the United States, and on account of world conditions probably will be unloaded at Pacific ports and transhipped by rail instead of being sent directly to New York by water.

The requisitioning of tonnage for naval purposes, the enormous demand for ships in trade, and the inroads of the submarines, are the chief conditions which have dealt a blow to Hawaiian commerce.—Bellingham (Wash.) Herald.

The complete production of the adaptation of Robert Louis Stevenson's "Huckleberry Finn" was made in Hawaii by the Lasky company for the Paramount program. Here were secured not only the necessary scenery and gorgeous outdoor "locations," but Hawaiian actors. In fact, every one in the picture is Hawaiian, except Sessue Hayakawa, the noted Japanese actor and star, and Guy Oliver.—Lewiston (Idaho) Tribune.

Miss Elinor Vogel, a teacher in the public schools of Honolulu, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Donaghio, who are camped on the B. O. Clark place.—Paradise (Cal.) Advance.

Miss Elizabeth Amoss and Miss Nellie Pond have returned from their trip to the Hawaiian Islands and report having had a most enjoyable sojourn on those far-away isles of the Pacific. In fact, they became so charmed by the many allurements that it was with profound reluctance that they brought their visit to an end. Swimming in the surf at the famous Waikiki beach proved the most delightful pastime. They both became quite proficient in the handling of outrigger canoes, but were not expert enough to essay any rides on the crests of the rushing waves on the surf boards.

"Honolulu is by far the most delightful spot I have ever seen in which to spend a vacation," said Miss Amoss today in speaking of the trip.—Napa (Cal.) Register.

Capt. and Mrs. C. T. Riggs and their sons, Capt. and Mrs. H. S. Kilbourne, Jr., are here from Honolulu, and for the time being until they are sent to their new stations, will be at the Hotel Cecil.—San Francisco Examiner.

Paul Paulson, who recently arrived from Honolulu on the steamer Elissa, together with his cousin, Paul Carson of San Francisco, a well known musician, were visiting with friends in Colma on Sunday.—San Mateo, Cal., News.

Mrs. Anna Lauritzen, formerly a resident here for many years, is here from her home in Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, to visit her old friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Knudsen.—Watsonville, Cal., Register.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Buck of San Francisco are registered at the Sacramento hotel. Buck is a man of big affairs on the coast, being president of the Honolulu Plantation company and the National Ice and Cold Storage company.—Sacramento, Cal., Union.

A letter from Eldon McCallister, who is a member of an ambulance company now stationed at Honolulu, has been received by Mr. McCallister's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCallister of Tulare, says the Tulare, Cal., Register. Eldon McCallister is in the same ambulance company with Eugene Moore of Earlimart. A few glimpses of the life of soldiers and sailors on the Hawaiian Islands are given in the letter, part of which follows:

"The members of the company were paid their two months' wages

last Friday, and all except 13 went to Honolulu. The train was filled with standing room at a premium. There were over 1,000 on this one train. Honolulu was a soldier's town Saturday night. There must have been 10,000 soldiers and a few hundred sailors. I never saw a more orderly or better natured crowd. The saloons are not allowed to sell booze to soldiers or sailors in uniform, and soldiers have to wear their uniforms all the time, so it is impossible for the soldiers to get anything to drink. I never saw prohibition more thoroughly enforced. The government has a post guard to see that none of the soldiers can get liquor, also the special privilege cards of the soldiers are taken, which is a very effective way, because without one no soldier is allowed to leave the military reservation.

"Robert Sellers and I went around together. We got rooms at the Y. M. C. A., the last two that they had left. Every rooming house and hotel in town was filled and many had to sleep out in paras and any place where they could crawl in.

"We got acquainted with a young fellow by the name of McGill, clerk of the Y. M. C. A. The Y. M. C. A. here is the best place of its kind I have ever seen. They have recently secured the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, one of the finest hotels in the city, besides the Y. M. C. A. building, especially for the soldiers. It surely makes it nice to be able to go in and rest whenever you want to. It comes in handy, too, as a meeting place and is always filled with soldiers."

The rest of the letter tells of a real meal, with sugar in the coffee, Saturday night at the Bijou Theater, Sunday at the Christian church, and a swim in the surf at the beach of Waikiki, with a description of the city of Honolulu and the people seen there.

The plan to send 3000 Hawaiians to the fighting line in France appeals to us. Properly armed with ukuleles, 3000 Hawaiians could do a lot of damage to the Germans.

The ukuleles, we may add for the benefit of those who have not had the benefit of expert information, is the national weapon of Hawaii.—Stockton, Cal., Mail.

J. H. Currie, member of the United States Board of Health, stationed at Honolulu for several years, is here with his family, en route to Boston, to which station he has been transferred.—Sacramento, Cal., Bee.

FAMILY SMASH CAUSES SUICIDE

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
 Hilo, August 18.—The late Kimura, a native of Japan, committed suicide Monday last, is the opinion of police officers in the Hamakua district.

Learning that Kimura had left his camp in a strange manner, officers, accompanied by a number of Japanese, went in search of the man. Finally his shoes and portions of his wearing apparel were found lying below a bluff on the Hamakua coast.

The search for his body continued, but the party was unable to locate the conclusion arrived at is that the unfortunate man threw himself over the bluff.

Kimura, who is 51 years of age, has a son and daughter in Japan. Monday morning last, he received a letter stating that his son had run away and that his daughter was about to be married.

Friends of his declare that the shock at receipt of this news turned the unfortunate man's brain, and accounted for his rash act.

MAUI DIVIDED INTO DISTRICTS FOR WORK OF RED CROSS UNIT

Red Cross enthusiasts on Maui have divided the island into six districts for the work of the organization, with a leader appointed for each district.

The women of Maui are sending out pledge cards similar to those used in Honolulu, and in this way, it is expected, the work will be rushed along. Garments and surgical dressings will be made and shipped to Honolulu.

The leaders of the six districts are Mrs. W. T. Wells, Haiku; Mrs. S. E. Taylor, Paia; Mrs. Ben Williams, Puu-nene; Mrs. W. S. Dale, Kahului; Mrs. H. B. Penhallow, Wailuku, and Mrs. William de Cotto, Lahaina. Other officers elected at a meeting last week are Mrs. F. F. Baldwin, president; Mrs. S. E. Taylor, vice-president; Mrs. H. D. Sloggett, secretary; Mrs. Harold Rice, treasurer.

A Sensitive Society Subject

Toilet and hygienic cleanliness is a subject of much interest to the scientific, social and laity world. It deserves all the attention it is receiving, and a great deal more, because upon a better understanding of its value rests the comfort and longevity of the human race. The way to obtain and retain it, is, of course, to keep clean, and to do this from a toilet and hygienic standpoint there is nothing more suitable than Tyre's Antiseptic Powder. The nature of the composition of this article makes it an almost indispensable adjunct to the toilet of every careful woman who appreciates the value and comfort of hygienic cleanliness. Tyre's Antiseptic Powder has a large and growing number of friends in the scientific, social and laity world. In solution when used for diseases of the mucous membrane and for prickly heat, poison oak, tender feet, offensive perspiration, etc., and in many other ways peculiar to woman's requirements, it is unexcelled.

Tyre's Powder does not stain, possesses no odor, and its use is accompanied by a most delightful sensation. Being inexpensive, its employment is not opposed by patients of moderate means. It is sold in original packages only at twenty-five cents and one dollar each, by the manufacturer, J. S. Tyre, Chemist, Inc., Washington, D. C.

NORWOOD GIVES SPLENDID SHOW

Hypnotizing 10 men into the belief that they are Spanish dancers is but one of several interesting things accomplished by Professor Norwood of Australia and New Zealand and well known in Honolulu, who opened a brief season at the Bijou theater last night. "A laugh a minute" is Professor Norwood's slogan while, as a matter of fact, the opening performance proved a continual round of mirth.

Norwood is without doubt one of the best hypnotists ever seen in Honolulu, and past performances in this city have made him popular with theatergoers. His "class" last night consisted of a dozen men from the audience, but two were dismissed because they refused to concentrate and persisted in chewing gum. From all appearances he had the members of his class completely in his power, and the various stunts he made them perform under the hypnotic spell brought roars of laughter from the audience.

There was one trick which Norwood performed that the audience failed to "see through." If it saw through any of them. This was the hypnotizing of a Filipino into absolute rigidity. The Filipino was then placed across the backs of two chairs, his ankles resting on one and his neck on the other. Under the weight of three men who stood upright on him, the body of the Filipino failed to sag an inch, except when Norwood caused the man's muscles to relax. Another one of Norwood's stunts was to hypnotize his class and send the members through the audience with the belief that they were selling papers. While at the Bijou, Professor Norwood plans to alter his program each night.

The feature picture which is being shown in connection with Norwood's performance is "The Devil's Needle," a Triangle film with an excellent plot depicting the destruction wrought upon users of drugs.
